From The Desk of Msgr. Riccardo

Dear Parishioners,

It's been a while since we've heard from Sr. Manners. So here are a few remarks...

Dear Sr. Manners: *What should I do if I have a cold and am offered the cup at Communion?

Gentle Christian: Christian sharing does not include those nasty cold germs. Out of respect for the health of one's fellow members of the Body of Christ, it is permissible for a person with such a problem to pass up the cup. Barring such circumstances, however, the faithful are urged to fully participate in the breaking of the bread and the sharing of the cup -- the better to symbolize the unity of Christ and his people. While she is on the topic of the cup, permit Sr. Manners to address another unpleasantness: Lipstick is meant for the lips -- not the rim of the cup. Wearers are cautioned to be moderate in the use of such adornments, trusting that their natural beauty will shine through.

Dear Sr. Manners: *What should you do if you need to leave the worship space during Mass?

Gentle Christian: Sr. Manners is certain that you understand that only the most unusual circumstances necessitate physically removing oneself during Mass. (At the risk of being indelicate, she suggests that the most common reason for leaving should be something attended to prior to the beginning of Mass. She urges parents to remind their children of this prudent practice.) One must ask oneself whether leaving or staying poses the greater distraction. A coughing fit, for example, might require leaving. If possible, one should time one's departure when other movement is taking place, and one's own movements would pose the least distraction. One should not hesitate to seek the assistance of the ushers in times of emergency.

Dear Sr. Manners: *I was taught as a child to genuflect before entering the pew when I come to Mass. Is this gesture of respect gone in today's world? Why don't people genuflect any more?

Gentle Christian: Your parents and catechists are to be commended for your sense of reverence. Sr. Manners must point out, however, that one genuflects in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Like you, Sr. Manners was raised in the pre-Vatican II Church where the tabernacle was in the main worship space; and she, too, grew up genuflecting. It is still appropriate to genuflect when entering the Blessed Sacrament chapel (Sr. Manners allows a bow for the arthritic). If the tabernacle is in its own chapel, one does not genuflect upon entering the worship area. Sr. Manners believes that a warm greeting, acknowledging the presence of one's fellow parishioners (in whom Jesus is also present) is the desired way to enter the worship space.

God Bless!

Msgr. J. Riccardo

125 Years....125 Stories

By: Father Pino

As part of our yearlong anniversary celebration, in each bulletin there will be some facts and historical curiosities about our parish and the people who have shaped our heritage for the past 125 years. If you have any stories or remembrances, please contact Jean in the parish office or Fr. Justin. So let's count down to number 1!

#107: Fr. Francis P. Aaron, our 5th assistant (1894-1894), was one of two brothers who both eventually became priests in the Diocese of Pittsburgh. His grandfather, George Aaron, was one of the original settlers of Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

#106: Fr. John Baptist DeVille, our 6th assistant (1897-1898), engaged in missionary activity in Belgium from 1914-1917 traveling back and forth to the U.S. bringing over refugees, principally women and children.

#105: Fr. Francis Cherney, our 7th assistant (1901-1902), spoke three languages: Slovak, German and Hungarian. As a result he served Slavish congregations throughout his priesthood in the Dioceses of Erie, Pittsburgh and Scranton.

ADVENT FAMILY ACTIVITY DAY Next Sunday, November 22, 2 - 4pm, in Wienker Hall. This event is open to all families in our four parishes. Several activities are planned.
