

Catholic Schools Week Activities

Dividends for Life

Monday: Students wear Uniforms and Bring outside snow outfits to play.

- Kids may bring snow toys as long as they are not dangerous.
- Open House for Parents and Community – must sign in and wear badge.
- Snow Day kids will be playing in the snow in the afternoon 1-2:30 with hot cocoa and snowball cookies, then dismissal
- Book Fair open to the students and public 11:30 -12:30
- Pennies for Patients begins today.

Tuesday: Students wear uniforms. 100th day of school.

- Sadeckys Puppets at 10:00 – Charlies' Choice, which is a show about a boy gets a look at two possible futures.
- Alumni Day : Alumni are welcome to read stories to children in the school and share stories from their past.
- Alumni Social at 5:00: Invite past students for appetizers, while current students display a power point, historic pictures will be out to display, short informal program.
- Book Fair will be open 1:30-2:30 and 5:00 – 6:00

Wednesday: Students Dress down.

- Magazine kickoff at 9:30
- Crazy George Schauer 1:00 First time appearance he is a former college and professional player whom has dedicated his life to motivating young people with his basketball tricks. He picks students to be stars in his show and to participate in the tricks he will motivate them with.
- Book Fair open at 1:30 -2:30

Thursday: Students dress down.

- Inner circle with Punxsutawney Phil at 1:00
- Science Expos 7/8 graders have put their science projects on display and will teach the entire school about their project of choice.
- Book Fair open at 1:30 -2:30

Friday: Students wear anniversary shirts.

- Mass at 9:00 with Principals present from the past. Followed by our traditional Brunch then dismissal. Book Fair open at 1:30 -2:30