

Classroom News

Teacher: Dr. Myers

Date: January 24, 2012

A Look at Our Week

Language Arts....new theme In our Neighborhood stories- Swing High, Swing Low, The Most Perfect Spot; sight wds- "up" "down", distinguish reality from fantasy

Phonics.....consonant sds- Xx /ks/, Qq /kw/, Yy /y/, Zz /z/ All consonant sds will be covered and children should be able to discriminate their sds in both the initial and final positions.

Math.....skip counting 2-20 (2,4,6,8,10,12,14,16,18, 20); counting to 100 by 10s, 5s; identifying numerals 1-100

Religion.....explaining the words of the Our Father, learning the words by heart

Reminders

All Math-athon booklets and donations should be turned in by Friday. Thank-you for your generous support of this very worthwhile project.

All rsvps for both the Bingo with grandparents and the School Mass/Brunch should be returned by now. Thank-you for your attention to this.

Special Notes

Our class donation to the auction, Feb. 4th, will be a class quilt. Through the efforts of Madison's Grandmother, Joanne Young, the project will be completed soon. The quilt includes your son's/daughter's picture, hand-print, and signature. I want to give a BIG thank-you to Joanne and commend her for the work.

Please don't's forget on "crazy sock" day your child should bring a NEW pair of socks to donate to Crossroads. The socks can be child/adult size, white/colored.

Upcoming

The day is almost here!!! the 100th, of course! On Monday, January 29th, we will celebrate the 100th day. As part of the day's activities, each child is to bring a collection of 100 to school to share with classmates. Suggestions for the collections are : 100 trinkets, pencils, crayons, markers, erasers, bookmarks, gum, candy (INDIVIDUALLY WRAPPED, please), etc.

It's also time for the DIBELS again. We will do the timed "game" on Thursday, Jan. 26th. It will include letter identification, initial sound identification, and blending nonsense words (ex. pov, daf, sif, raj)

Classroom News

Teacher: Dr. Myers

Date: January 24, 2012

A Look at Our Week

Language Arts....new theme In our Neighborhood stories- Swing High, Swing Low, The Most Perfect Spot; sight wds- "up" "down", distinguish reality from fantasy

Phonics.....consonant sds- Xx /ks/, Qq /kw/, Yy /y/, Zz /z/ All consonant sds will be covered and children should be able to discriminate their sds in both the initial and final positions.

Math.....skip counting 2-20 (2,4,6,8,10,12,14,16,18, 20); counting to 100 by 10s, 5s; identifying numerals 1-100

Religion.....explaining the words of the Our Father, learning the words by heart

Reminders

All Math-athon booklets and donations should be turned in by Friday. Thank-you for your generous support of this very worthwhile project.

All rsvps for both the Bingo with grandparents and the School Mass/Brunch should be returned by now. Thank-you for your attention to this.

Special Notes

Our class donation to the auction, Feb. 4th, will be a class quilt. Through the efforts of Madison's Grandmother, Joanne Young, the project will be completed soon. The quilt includes your son's/daughter's picture, hand-print, and signature. I want to give a BIG thank-you to Joanne and commend her for the work.

Please don't's forget on "crazy sock" day your child should bring a NEW pair of socks to donate to Crossroads. The socks can be child/adult size, white/colored.

Upcoming

The day is almost here!!! the 100th, of course! On Monday, January 29th, we will celebrate the 100th day. As part of the day's activities, each child is to bring a collection of 100 to school to share with classmates. Suggestions for the collections are : 100 trinkets, pencils, crayons, markers, erasers, bookmarks, gum, candy (INDIVIDUALLY WRAPPED, please), etc.

It's also time for the DIBELS again. We will do the timed "game" on Thursday, Jan. 26th. It will include letter identification, initial sound identification, and blending nonsense words (ex. pov, daf, sif, raj)